Ms. Victoria Gibson
U. S. Pretrial Services Officer

Dear Victoria:

As I mentioned in my check-in call, it has been our long-time custom to celebrate my October 9th birthday (68th, this year) with a visit to Yosemite National Park, in my opinion the most beautiful and restorative place on earth. Despite the fact that this birthday coincides with the Columbus Day weekend, we were very fortunate to obtain reservations for a Curry Village cabin on the nights of Monday and Tuesday, October 10th and 11th. A copy of their confirmation accompanies this FAX. Please note, there is a 10-day cancellation clause, which is why this request is made so early.

If you and the Court have no objection, my wife and I will leave home early on Monday morning and drive directly to the valley at Yosemite. We will remain inside the park until we return home by nightfall, Wednesday, October 12th. While en route and in Yosemite, we might be reached by mobile phone (650-868-6053 or 650-504-4835). We will also often check for messages at the Curry Village reception desk (209-372-8333 or 209-372-1001) since there are no in-room phones.

My Attorney, Joshua Lerner, will contact you before submitting a Request For Order to the court. We would sincerely appreciate your cooperation.

Respectfully,

John Karow, Jr.
